

Robin Grieve - Course Objectives

- Boost Confidence: Increase your confidence on and off the platform
- Organise Your Presentation: Place your thought into a logical sequence that will lead your audience to a clearly defined goal
- Incorporate Body Language: Explore ways your body can work for you with gestures, as you give your speech or presentation.
- Add Vocal Variety: Find out how the correct use of voice volume, pitch rate and quality are an asset to your speaking.
- Give Introductions: Learn how to welcome speakers to the platform
- Visual Aids: Let them enhance rather than ruin your speech or presentation
- Humour: Being funny is a serious business, learn the techniques available to create humour, and liven up that presentation
- More, More and More options to suit any individuals requirement!!!

"How wonderful is the human brain, it starts working the moment you are born never stopping until that fateful day when you're called upon to speak at a public meeting or business conference". Learn how not to be caught off balance like this when speaking off the cuff.

This course uses tried and tested methods to unleash the communicator within. The course lasts only a few hours but the benefits are forever. As employees, employers or just keen individuals, participants will be more capable of representing themselves and those they seek to represent.